

Article 3 Section 2

THE STANDARDIZED UNIT:

To simplify trade, all previous measurements are abolished. The new standard unit of length is the "Step of a Confused Duck." Because the length of this unit changes depending on the duck's level of bewilderment, all merchants must keep a "State-Certified Agitated Waterfowl" on-site for all official transactions.